Dear Dad,

PROVA
N. 8

I hope this letter finds you in better health. I have thought about you so much lately, and I know I have hurt you deeply. I regret the words I said and the distance that grew between us. There is no excuse for the way I acted, and I carry that shame with me every day.

I miss you. I miss the sound of your voice, your laugh, and the way you used to tell me stories when I was little. I miss having you in my life. The estrangement between us has left a hole in my heart that nothing can fill.

I am asking for your forgiveness. I do not expect you to forget, but I hope you can find it in your heart to forgive me. I want to make things right, to earn back your trust, and to be your daughter again.

I want to come and see you. I want to sit with you, talk with you, and try to rebuild what we have lost. I understand if you are not ready, but I had to try. I love you, Dad, more than words can say.

With all my love and deepest regret,

Margaret
