The Gift Studio

52 Occasions • Message Templates • Presentation Ideas

Never wonder “what should I write?” again. A message and pattern suggestion for every occasion.

THE EVENING STITCH™

How to Use This Guide

Each occasion includes:

- A message template you can write inside a stitched card
- A suggested collection from your pattern library
- A presentation idea for making the gift special

Presentation Tips That Work Every Time

1. Double-fold card: Stitch on the front panel, write the message inside
2. Tissue wrap: Wrap framed pieces in tissue paper tied with matching thread
3. Story card: Include a small card explaining that this was hand-stitched on paper
4. Envelope art: Stitch a mini pattern on the envelope for an extra touch

Personalization wins: A $12 handmade card with a personal message beats a $50 gift every time. The recipient keeps it forever because someone made it with their hands.

Your Gift-Making System

Keep 5–10 cards stitched and ready at all times. When an occasion comes up, you'll have a heartfelt gift ready in minutes instead of scrambling at the store.

Batch Stitching Strategy

1. Pick 3 versatile patterns (a mandala, a flower, and a heart)
2. Prick 10 cards of each pattern in one session
3. Stitch them over a week during your evening sessions
4. Store flat in a box with tissue paper between each card
5. Add the message when the occasion arrives

Your Next Step

Choose the next 3 occasions coming up in your life and stitch a card for each one this week. Start your ready-to-give collection.
